

Time: 10 Minutes	Paper English 7 (T-1)	Total Marks: 10
5th Month, 1st Week, 3rd Day
Syllabus: Unit # 9: Stanza: 4 + Post-reading, Dialogue: between two friends on routine without electricity.

Q.No.1. Choose the correct options. (2)

1. The word "frozen" is:

(a)	noun	(b)	verb	(c)	adjective	(d)	adverb
-----	------	-----	------	-----	-----------	-----	--------

2. Choose the correct spelling.

(a)	blossams	(b)	blossems	(c)	blossoms	(d)	blosoms
-----	----------	-----	----------	-----	----------	-----	---------

Read the given stanza and answer the following questions.

Weeping for a night alone endureth,
 God at last shall bring a morning hour,
 In the frozen buds of every winter
 Sleep the blossoms of a future flower.

3. What is the overall message of the poem?

(a)	Life is full of suffering.	(b)	God will help us through difficulties.
(c)	Our hopes will always be dashed.	(d)	There is no hope for the future.

4. The poet of the poem is:

(a)	William Ralph Emerson	(b)	Harriet Beecher Stowe
(c)	John Keats	(d)	William Wordsworth

Q.No.2. Answer these questions. (4)

- Write the words from the poem which show the message of hope?

- How do you behave when you face a problem?

Q.No.3. Write a dialogue between two friends on routine without electricity. (4)

Time: 10 Minutes	Paper English 7 (T-1)	Total Marks: 10
5th Month, 1st Week, 3rd Day
Syllabus: Unit # 9: Stanza: 4 + Post-reading, Dialogue: between two friends on routine without electricity.

Q.No.1. Choose the correct options. (2)

1. The word "frozen" is:

(a)	noun	(b)	verb	(c)	adjective	(d)	adverb
-----	------	-----	------	-----	-----------	-----	--------

2. Choose the correct spelling.

(a)	blossams	(b)	blossems	(c)	blossoms	(d)	blosoms
-----	----------	-----	----------	-----	----------	-----	---------

Read the given stanza and answer the following questions.

Weeping for a night alone endureth,
 God at last shall bring a morning hour,
 In the frozen buds of every winter
 Sleep the blossoms of a future flower.

3. What is the overall message of the poem?

(a)	Life is full of suffering.	(b)	God will help us through difficulties.
(c)	Our hopes will always be dashed.	(d)	There is no hope for the future.

4. The poet of the poem is:

(a)	William Ralph Emerson	(b)	Harriet Beecher Stowe
(c)	John Keats	(d)	William Wordsworth

Q.No.2. Answer these questions. (4)

- Write the words from the poem which show the message of hope?

- How do you behave when you face a problem?

Q.No.3. Write a dialogue between two friends on routine without electricity. (4)
